Retiring is no longer an option for Roc, who is now forced to restudy Philly's vicious streets through blood-filled eyes. He realizes that his brother's killer is none other than his mentor and former friend Mr. Holmes. With this knowledge, the strategic game of chess that began with the pushing of a pawn in the Blood of My Brother series, symbolizes one of love, loyalty, blood, mayhem, and death. In the end, the streets of Philadelphia will never be the same...
