There is a bumper sticker that goes "Exercise. Eat right. Die anyway." And unfortunately, that is the truth. It may be 100 years from now, but some day your physical body will die. But what about your mind? What about the part of you that holds your personality, your hopes and dreams, and your memories? Discover the truth about the afterlife in What Happens After Death by Migene Gonzalez-Wippler

For centuries, philosophers and scientists have investigated the mysteries of the afterlife. Discover the secrets about the electromagnetic nature of the mind, and how it continues to exist in the astral world even after the death of the body. Learn about scientific investigations conducted by individuals and at universities. Read about the "tunnel of light" phenomenon reported by survivors of near-death experiences.

If the mind of a person continues after death, is it possible to establish communication with it? It has been rumored that Thomas A. Edison was working on a device to accomplish this just before he died. Even though he didn't succeed, this book describes many people who have. Here you will learn about the history of the Spiritualist religion, including such people as Swedenborg, Home, the Fox sisters and Kardec. Finally, you'll discover some of the latest information about the mind as it continues past physical death.

The next part of the book was actually written by Kirkudian, a channeled being who spent several lives on Earth and reveals what life is like elsewhere.

If you have ever wondered what happens after death ó and before life ó you won't want to miss this book.
