Jinn of Svendia must bond with her onetime enemy Captain Drakkar of Vulgaria. This bond that will bring peace to both their planets. But peace is not for Jinn—not now.

First, she must first complete her vow to take revenge against her father's killer. Yet she can't let Drakkar know. He would try to stop her. As much as she needs Drakkar's touch and the feel of his warm, strong body, she must avenge her father's death—a death she witnessed as her father pushed her to safety.

Only if she succeeds can she go back to Drakkar—that's if she survives.

Drakkar has to find Jinn. She's in peril and he can't let her die. He needs her more than she knows. His body yearns for her and once they have bonded, the peace will be complete. He will find her. He must. His people—and his body and soul—must have her to be complete.
