A world traveler arrives in Holbrook, Arizona, to find a strange man with a more than strange story. As he listens, the man narrates the tragedies of his early life, and our traveler begins to identify with the man's experiences involving the Navajo people and the mesas and canyons of northeastern Arizona. He also meets an interesting woman who runs a café in town, and experiences her extraordinary cooking. And he enters into a dream world of Navajo skinwalkers, Enemy Way Ceremonies, and strange relationships that end tragically and impossibly.
