The Inimitable Jeeves (World Classics in Large Print) P. G. Wodehouse

This is the second collection of stories (after My Man Jeeves) featuring the ingenious but discrete butler Jeeves who can be counted on to get his master Bertie Wooster out of the many tight spots he and his friends create for themselves. These 18 stories pit Jeeves and Bertie against an array of worthy characters, including, most notably, his pal Bingo Little, cousins Claude and Eustis, Sir Roderick Glossop (the loony doctor) and his daughter Honoria (briefly engaged to Bertie), and, of course, the imperious Aunt Agatha Gregson.
