Corporate machine Cirrus Shire lives and breathes The Company Values as a middle manager at Setco, the company that now rules what was once known as Southern England. Cirrus is not himself; 'off-brand', he is experiencing vivid, unfathomable dreams that point to a different reality away from the advanced consumerism of Setcopia.

Against social conventions Keira, a member of the ruling elite, befriends him, making him her project and enlightens him about the realities of the new social order.

Failing to 'aspire' Cirrus becomes more and more disaffected by all around him, learning more from the wayward Keira as his memory of the 'old' world returns. Unearthing the dark secrets at the heart of Setcopia, can he beat the state? And what happened to his lost life and love?

Welcome to Setcopia is a dark satire into a near reality of corporate political power.

Dave Egger's The Circle meets Nineteen Eighty-Four and A Clockwork Orange.

Author's note - The first third of this book is written in 'Setcopian', a language derived from 'business-speak'. It reverts to English thereafter but it may remind you of work! A glossary is featured.
