Out of the Forest: Re-Engaging in God's Call to Purpose Rick L. Brown

In this award-winning book, author Rick Brown explores an obscure but profound passage found in 2 Samuel 18:8. Describing a battle during Absalom's rebellion, the Scripture says: "The battle spread ... and the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword." With wit and encouragement, Brown discusses some of the reasons people are still fleeing life's battles and running to their own forests, and provides hope for re-emerging into a life of purpose.
