How The Best Get Better 2 (book and CD set) Dan Sullivan

Unprecedented rates of global change have made this the greatest time in history to be an entrepreneur. For those with the basic foundation of attitudes and skills covered in How the Best Get Better®, Book 1, the increasing confusion, isolation, and powerlessness caused by rapid change provides unique opportunities for growth, contribution, and achievement. The most successful entrepreneurs in this increasingly complex world have learned how to escape competition and create an extraordinary quality of life. They make exceptional contributions, innovating in response to the growing desire of countless individuals for greater direction, confidence, and capability. Autonomy and integrity, as well as success, make them role models and shining examples of what entrepreneurial life has to offer, both to the entrepreneurs who pursue it and to the societies that benefit. This second volume of How the Best Get Better® illustrates how any entrepreneur with a basic foundation of success and a desire for lifetime growth can acquire the attitudes and skills of the most exceptional entrepreneurial leaders and create a future with no limits.
