While I was treating myself to all of the other finer things in life, why not treat myself to a little romance and passion, too?

Danielle was always the sort of woman to work hard but never play hard. She put in so much time and effort into her job, college, and everything else, that it rarely left her with any time leftover to take care of herself more than the bare minimum. With a semester complete and a raise at her job, her friends urged her to take some time to herself and get away for a little while. She had the time off from college and the time available from work, so there was nothing stopping her.

She booked a first class flight for an exotic getaway. She'd only planned to work on her tan and catch up on her pleasure reading on the beach, but those plans changed when beautiful and exotic Lisa sat down next to her. Dinner, drinks, and a movie later... and things were a little too heated for the two gorgeous women to stay in their seats with their hands to themselves.

GUARANTEED HAPPILY EVER AFTER IN THIS STANDALONE LESBIAN ROMANCE.
