Capitalism and Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe: Assessing the Legacy of Communist Rule

Capitalism and Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe: Assessing the Legacy of Communist Rule

Including essays by several leading contemporary specialists, this volume addresses the extent to which postcommunist societies have successfully institutionalized democratic politics and capitalist market economies over a decade after the collapse of the Soviet bloc. As the first volume to apply a systematic "comparative historical" approach to the subject matter, it reveals the precise social, cultural, and geographical constraints and opportunities facing postcommunist reformers.
