My Heart Beats Faster in Past Times (The Simple Romantic Travels Through Time Book 1) L.R. Shimer

A demanding career, plus a passion for music and ballet, leaves Larissa little time to feel she's missing out on romance. It's a surprise when she finds herself dreaming of an intensely romantic encounter with a deep voiced, Russian man in the knee-high boots and embroidered tunic of another era.

Of course Larissa's had a lifelong passion for all things Russian. An evening spent with Tchaikovsky's "Sleeping Beauty", must have served as an invitation for that fantasy fellow to invade her nighttime visions. Surely that dream's got nothing to do with the mysterious gift card her best friend Judy sent in the mail, along with the ballet music.

Or does it?

Before she knows it, that card turns out to be a curveball, pitching Larissa back through time, to the twilight of Romanov rule in the glittering world of Imperial Russia.

Fans of time-travel, adventure romances, from the pens of Diana Gabaldon and Jude Deveraux, will enjoy this richly illustrated, and often humorous, time travel tale.
