Whatever happened to those good ole' days when Coke was just a soft drink and people thought that cholesterol was the stuff that made leaves green? No one could answer this question better than Lewis Grizzard in this 100% original, 100% hilarious stumble down memory lane.

What in the world has gone wrong with America in the last 30 years? Grizzard attempts to analyze this searching question as he explores, compares and contrasts his relationships with women, the various wars we've dabbled in, sex, fame, the women's movement, race relations, politics, and much, much more. In these never before published pieces, Grizzard is doing what he does best: making fun of everything and bringing us a lot of fun in the process.
