Poor No More: Wealth Is Within Reach Curtis Hill

With all the news of job losses and economic uncertainty today, the importance of making smart personal financial decisions has never been more evident. Author Curtis Hill, CFP®, has recently published Poor No More: Wealth Is Within Reach, a book that shows how to transform the life we have into the life we deserve.

Poor No More provides common sense solutions to today's money problems written in an easy to read and understand style.

Mr. Hill will teach you unique ways to view how and why you spend money that will result in significant lifestyle enhancements. Yes, affordable luxury is not only possible but also practical with Mr. Hill's techniques.

Wealthy people perceive money differently from poor people. The wealthy are money savings experts! The wealthy have learned how to avoid the money traps that the poor fall into. You will learn why some people can build wealth from nothing while others remain poor. You will learn to identify the forces that conspire to hold you back.

Budgeting becomes a planning tool to regain financial control and self-confidence. You will see the dramatic interest cost savings that come from improving your credit scores. Mr. Hill will provide tips that can improve some of your credit scores by 100 points in only 45 days.

You will realize that traditional retirement is an obsolete concept designed by corporations to keep you depended on your paycheck until the corporation is done with you. Mr. Hill will teach you to replace this obsolete view with more satisfying concept that allow for early self-realization of your important dreams.

You will learn unique and practical saving techniques. Further you will learn to avoid some of the investments traps than investors fall into.

“Poor No More: Wealth Is Within Reach brings together the best ideas in personal finance, budgeting, planning, and wealth building principles to create a new and innovative approach to gaining personal financial freedom,” said Hill. “The message of the book is clear, we no longer make financial decisions based on our own monetary interests; instead, we are guided by the hidden agendas of toxic financial influences. To prosper and grow our financial lives, we must learn how to identify these external influences and replace them with new beliefs, ideas, and attitudes; in short, rebuild the way we make financial decisions so that are choices are in tune with our personal needs and not those of advertisers and slick sales campaigns.”?

In a market glutted with personal financial guides, author Hill brings a clear voice and a truly profound approach to building personal wealth. The book is now available on Amazon.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
