Resources from Classic Literature: For Preachers, Speakers, and Writers Dr. Jon Tal Murphree

To facilitate prep work for speakers and writers, this volume contains 888 usable quotes and illustrations from 152 works by 77 authors on 170 subjects with 149 subheadings, all from classic literature. The time span of the sources runs from 9th century B.C. to the first half of the 20th century A.D., from Homer to Robert Frost. All selections are arranged alphabetically under subjects for easy access. The 34-page annotated bibliography gives concise information about each author and work, so those who use the material will know the context in which it was written. Every item is thoroughly documented with page number(s) under each selection and publishing data in the Works Cited section. The items themselves are user-friendly. They are lean, pared down so the user will not have to read through a lot of extra baggage. These quotes and illustrations are a gold mine of treasure for the public speaker and writer as well as the Christian minister.
