Nathan Grace is a hard-working executive who just wants his piece of the pie. He recently moved to the Miami area for a job with Waving Palm Advertising Firm, and he enjoys the work, as well as the women that are drawn like magnets to him. He's good looking, charismatic, and wealthy. Keeping track of all his women is becoming too much of a task, and Nathan soon discovers that maybe the playboy life is just too much stress, after all.

When his boss Antoine tells Nathan that he is one of a select few employees that will be flown to the Bahamas for an all expense paid business trip, Nathan is excited to think that he'll be able to get away from his usual environment for a change. He doesn't expect to meet the lovely Francine Baker on his flight, and he also doesn't expect to be invited to a risqué after-party at Antoine's hotel later that week, either.

Nathan and Francine soon discover that aside from their kinky rendezvous with Antoine, they are genuinely interested in one another. Their walk along the beach after the party reveals a side of Nathan that he never knew existed. The playboy from Miami has finally decided that he's found the love of his life. Francine is a dream come true.
