The Possibility of Winds Rosemary Huisman

Commended, IP Picks 2006, Best Poetry. Rosemary s Huisman s first collection of poetry is an eclectic mix of the real world and typifies Rosemary s talent for paying attention to her surroundings and using it as an inspiration for her poetry. The poems in this collection touch on natural, social and political surroundings, as well as being particularly aware of language used by other people. These things combined make for an enjoyable and interesting read. For poetry readers and non-poetry readers alike, The Possibility of Winds has a wide variety of subjects that would appeal to anyone from the age of 14 and up. A great collection that is essential for representing Australian poetry in libraries and schools.
