I'd waited until she was seventeen to claim her. Now she's mine and she'll stay mine even if I have to fight the whole world to keep her.

Wrecker waited three years behind bars for his girl, Chelsea, and now that they are together they will fight anyone and anything that threatens to separate them. When a local Fortune woman is killed, Wrecker is a convenient scapegoat for the dirty Fortune police. The answers to the woman's death appears to lie in the hands of a neighboring motorcycle club whose secrets could get the both of them killed.
