Hammond Concise Atlas of World History

One of the classics of reference publishing in the world, this new and revised edition is the ideal reference for all those who study and enjoy history. This sixth edition has been updated to include important developments of the recent past including the successor states of the Soviet Union, the civil war in former Yugoslavia, and the ethnic fragmentation of Europe. It contains 192 pages with accessible reference to world history and over 300 full color easy-to-use maps with clear and simple text. This comprehensive atlas is a recommended preparation tool for the College Board Advanced Placement Test in World History. It's ideal for university and secondary AP classroom use or independent reference.
