People encounter life's struggles everyday. We're constantly searching for answers, sometimes at the point of desperation. "How can I be a better mother? A better father? Husband? Wife? Student? Unfortunately, most people aren't listening to sermons these days. How do we reach them? What would encourage them to rise above their circumstances and seek God's perspective for their lives? Introducing God's Way; a collection of real life stories about God encountering and changing a person's life – that give both encouragement and instruction to those who are yearning for answers to their specific situations. People who are hurting, confused, and without hope, need to see these true and living examples.
