On April 26, 1986, the most catastrophic reacting furnace disaster occurred in Chernobyl. This was one of the most serious disasters in history. The author of this book visited nearly a hundred people influenced by the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, including guiltless residents, firefighters and staff recruited to clear the scene of the disaster. Their stories reveal that they still live in fear, anger and uneasiness till today. The book presents the interviews in the form of monologues. The extremely meticulous real-life descriptions make the tragic sound like a fairy tale of the Doomsday.
