No quarterback would go into a championship game without studying his playbook, assessing his strengths and weaknesses and making sure he and his team are on the same page. Similarly, no man should jump into the money game unprepared, but far too many do. And because of misguided and outdated gender roles, by the time men acknowledge needing help, the game is unfortunately just seconds away from being over. . . And they are not in the lead. Fortunately, when a quarterback sees that a play isn't going to work, he can call an audible and change the plan midway through. Like football, best-selling book, Real Money Answers for Men is your financial audible. It's a practical, no fluff guide designed to awaken a shift in how you make, manage and relate to money so that you can actually win the money game and leave a legacy you can be proud of.
