MIB Claims 2nd Edition: Practice and Procedure under the 1999 Agreement (Special Bulletin)

Andrew Ritchie, Tara Vindis

This book provides the practical advice that all British personal injury litigators handling RTA cases need to advise clients whose claims fall within the new Uninsured Drivers Agreement. These cases have always been fraught with procedural difficulties and the technical nature of the 1999 agreement has only increased the risks of default by claimants and solicitors. Written by Andrew Ritchie and Tara Vindis, specialist personal injury barristers, this Special Bulletin clearly sets out the many potential pitfalls and offers practical guidance to ensure that the client's cases are handled effectively.
